defined objects, and component scripts. Interfaces AutoCAD Free Download provides API for customizing its GUI and its data, through the TCL/TK scripting interface, Visual LISP, and VBA. AutoCAD supports Automation using ObjectARX. ObjectARX is a C++ class library for the AutoCAD architecture. It exposes a number of functionalities, such as drawing tools, drawing primitives, commands, custom objects, editors, and renderers. The Application Programming Interface (API) for Visual LISP is one of the more powerful scripting languages.

Visual LISP is a fully object-oriented language for programming CAD applications. Visual LISP and TCL/TK are based on the same underlying technology. Visual LISP is used for writing applications and tools, and it is a good programming language for managing CAD applications and creating data analysis programs. Visual Basic for Applications is an alternative to Visual LISP. Visual Basic for Applications (VBA) is an application programming interface (API) that is part of Microsoft Office and Microsoft Office Add-in technologies. The Visual Basic for Applications programming environment is based on the Visual Basic language. Visual Basic for Applications is used to create applications for Microsoft Office, Microsoft Windows and other applications that support the VBA API. A number of AutoCAD plugins are available on the AutoCAD Exchange App store, such as Autodesk Exchange App, Autodesk Exchange App 2D, Autodesk Exchange App 3D, Autodesk Exchange App Civil 3D, Autodesk Exchange App Civil 3D (Sales Edition), Autodesk Exchange App Arch, Autodesk Exchange App Electrical, Autodesk Exchange App Mechanical, Autodesk Exchange App Landscape, Autodesk Exchange App Landscape (Sales Edition), Autodesk Exchange App Logistics, Autodesk Exchange App Logistics (Sales Edition), Autodesk Exchange App Medical, Autodesk Exchange App MEP, Autodesk Exchange App Personal, Autodesk Exchange App PLM, Autodesk Exchange App PLM (Sales Edition), Autodesk Exchange App PLM (US English), Autodesk Exchange App PLM (UK English), Autodesk Exchange App PLM (Sales Edition), Autodesk Exchange App PLM ( a1d647c40b
